WCA PROVISION FOR SCHOLARSHIPS IN THE BY-LAWS

Committee, shall annually appoint such standing or special committees as may be required by the By-Laws or as may be found necessary, including but not limited to:

1. WCA Scholarship Chairperson and Scholarship Committee

WCA SCHOLARSHIP CHAIRPERSON GUIDELINES

1. The selection committee shall consist of a Chairperson and five (5) members. The Chairperson will be appointed by the President of World Clown Association. (WCA). The Chairperson will select the committee members and make it known that the current committee members are not eligible to apply for any WCA scholarship in the year that they serve.
2. Any WCA approved clown arts educational program directors/administrators that may have possible WCA scholarship winners attending their program are not eligible for serving on the scholarship committee. Any member of another clown arts educational scholarship committee is not eligible to serve on the scholarship committee for that year.
3. The Scholarship Chairperson will receive the scholarship applications online at worldclown.com by November 1st, and will be responsible for checking with the Business Office Manager to confirm all BoDino and Blab-I-Gail scholarship applicants are WCA members in good standing.
4. The Scholarship Chairperson will print copies of all applications and attached photos for WCA files and email all scholarship applications/photos to committee members for review.
5. In an effort to give more clowns educational opportunities, WCA scholarships MAY NOT be stacked, combined, or overlapped with any other scholarships. Chairperson MUST NOTIFY approved venues of WCA scholarship winners immediately following the completion of the judging of the scholarship applications.
6. The Executive Committee of WCA will be notified of the winners after the decision has been made.
7. Winners will receive a letter on WCA letterhead notifying them of their scholarship. Winners will be announced at the annual WCA Convention. The letter of notification will be prepared by the Chairperson for the recipients. Two (2) copies will be sent: one (1) for the recipient's records and one (1) to send to the Director of the event chosen. A request for an article for publication will be included with this letter.
8. A non-winning letter of thanks and encouragement will be sent to the applicants who did not receive a scholarship.
9. The Chairperson will notify the WCA Treasurer of the Bo Dino, Blab-I-Gail, and Youth Circus Arts Scholarships and the events they plan to attend. (Educational venues or WCA Convention) The Editor of CLOWNING AROUND will be notified of the winners with an article and photo, and will publish the articles in the magazine. (Blab-I-Gail-March Issue, Bo Dino and Youth Circus Arts-May Issue) The CLOWNING AROUND Editor is prepared to receive articles from winners following their educational programs.
10. If an applicant wants to obtain clearance to attend another educational venue not covered on the current approved list, he must submit all current information on the choice to the Scholarship Chair-person, who will forward the information to the WCA Executive Committee as soon as possible after review. If the submittal is deficient the applicant should be notified of the deficiency and given the opportunity to provide missing information. Every educational program must meet the approval guidelines. All approval informational on that program must be submitted for review by the Scholarship Chairperson and the Executive Committee.
11. The number of scholarships to be awarded yearly will be determined by the Executive Committee of the WCA at the Annual Fall Mid-term Meeting, in accordance with scholarship funds available.

12. The Scholarship Chair will ask each recipient to write an article for possible publication in CLOWNING AROUND. The publication of these articles may be within the same calendar year or in the following year, up to the date that articles are being published by new recipients. The deadline for each recipient shall be four (4) to six (6) weeks after the scholarship was used. The article, including a photo should be sent to the Scholarship Chairperson who will forward it to the CLOWNING AROUND Editor. The Editor will publish the articles in a timely manner as soon as possible after receipt.

13. Each Bo Dino recipient will receive an award patch and the Blab-I-Gail recipients receive a lapel pin award to wear on their costumes or clothing during their educational venue or the WCA Convention. These awards encourage others to further their studies of this art form and submission of applications.

14. It is recommended that the committee members remember that they are looking for the heart of a clown, a person with a desire to stand beside others who want to learn this art form. This ideal should be kept in mind with the review of each application. Background and goals must be considered along with the degree to which the scholarship will further the winner's goals, benefit other clowns, and benefit the community and clowning in general.

15. All online copies of the applications are to be deleted from the judge's computers after evaluations are completed and reports are made. The Chairperson will complete an Annual Scholarship Report. One (1) printed copy of each application and one (1) printed of the final report will be kept for five (5) years by the Chairperson, after which they may be destroyed.

16. The Scholarship Chairperson is also in charge of the Scholarship Auction held annually at the convention. The Chairperson is responsible for working with the Convention committee Chair to request a space to accept auction items, as well as space to store them nightly until the time they are taken to the auction. A room will be assigned and the appropriate number of tables set up for collecting and displaying the items to be viewed before the auction. The Chairperson will be responsible for labeling auction forms for all items that are collected with the donor's name, and the value, (forms supplied by WCA Business Manager). Chairperson also trains the workers helping.

17. The Chairperson will write articles for publication in CLOWNING AROUND on a regular basis, especially the convention issues, stressing that scholarship funds are possible because of the auction held each year at the WCA convention and include reminders regarding making financial donations for the auctions, and items to be brought or sent to the convention.

18. It is the responsibility of the WCA Business Manager to oversee and coordinate taking in the money at the auction as well as keeping track of the amount per bid item at the auction, and to see that the auction proceeds are turned over to the WCA Treasurer after the auction.

Email to committee members by Nov.1st, followed by applications to review, Nov.15, with ranked results returned to Chairperson by Dec. 1st.

GUIDELINES FOR SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Thank you for agreeing to serve on the WCA Scholarship Committee. We are fortunate to experience the convenience of the worldwide online application and evaluation process. This eliminates the expense of postage, duplication of the applications, and speeds up turn-around time of applications between the Chairperson and the Scholarship Committee judges. Scholarship applications are due to the Chairperson by November 1st and they will be confirmed by WCA Business Manager and emailed to the committee by Nov.15 with results returned to the Chairperson by Dec 1st, and winners to be notified by December 15th. Sometimes it is difficult to evaluate and rank the applicants, as many are worthy. I suggest giving a score of one (1) lowest to ten (10) highest for the strength of each response to the five (5) questions, plus one (1) photo on the application, making your highest score sixty (60) We can award a minimum of 2 scholarships.

Review all the applications and email your ranking of the applications with one (1) as highest. You have been chosen as a WCA Scholarship judge for you character, experience, and longevity as a WCA clown. With a photo attached, something to keep in mind, IF we know the applicant, we are to judge only by what we see before us on the applications.

THE WCA GUIDELINES STATE: AS A COMMITTEE MEMBER, YOU MUST READ EACH APPLICATION WITH THE FOLLOWING THOUGHTS IN MIND:

- Does this applicant have the heart of a clown?
- Is this person one who has the desire to stand proudly beside other clowns?
- Is this person one who wants to share what they learn with others who are desirous of like learning?
- Does this applicant want to bring joy and laughter into the world?

You should also consider:

- What is the background of the applicant?
- Does the applicant have a passion/enthusiasm for clowning?
- How dedicated does the applicant appear to be?
- What goals does the applicant have? i.e. Are they motivated by giving joy to children, the elderly, etc.. or are they more concerned by $$$?
- What skills do they currently have? Are these skills one that took practice and dedication to learn and master?
- Will this applicant's winning of a scholarship benefit their community? Does the applicant have a plan to implement the education that he/she will receive?
- Will the education the applicant receives assist his/her in his/her future as a clown?
- Will this applicant's winning of a scholarship benefit his/her clowning environment in general?

Finally consider:

- Has this applicant attended other clown related educational programs (local, out of state, clown conventions, workshops, community educational classes)?
- Has the applicant received any other scholarship awards? When? From whom?
- Does applicant appear in their photos to take care in the application of their makeup/costuming, etc.

If you have any questions about this year's applications, contact Scholarship Chair, Nancy Opitach,
20169 Merriman Road, Livonia, Michigan, 481527 Phone: 586/201.8382 Email: bubbles-the-clown @att.net

Sincerely, Nancy Opitach

TIMELINE OF WCA SCHOLARSHIP ACTIVITIES

At the Annual Convention, as stated in the By-Laws, the new President appoints the Chairperson of the Scholarship Committee. In the following months until the annual Mid-Term meeting, it is the responsibility of this Chairperson to write at least three (3) articles for CLOWNING AROUND about the Scholarships to promote WCA and their scholarship programs at various clown conferences and events. Articles will contain information about the scholarship program and will solicit articles to be auctioned at the annual convention.

By July 1 of that year, the Chairperson will have prepared guidelines and information for publication in CLOWNING AROUND and on the WCA website and will post the current application form. The WCA Scholarship Guidelines and Application Form will be run online in the July and September issues of CLOWNING AROUND.

By August 1 of that year, if there are any new venues to be evaluated for addition to the Bo Dino list of approved venues, a committee meeting must be scheduled and said venues then are evaluated and included in the Chair's Mid-Year report.

At the Annual WCA Mid-Term Meeting held in Sept/Oct of each year, the WCA Executive Committee reviews the financial status of the scholarship program and determines how many scholarships will be given that year and the dollar amount of those scholarships.

By September 1 of that year, it is the responsibility of the WCA Scholarship Chairperson to choose committee who will review the scholarship applications. The committee will consist of five (5) persons in addition to the Chairperson and will have members of different ages and experience levels, and are persons who are honest and trustworthy.

By November 1, the Chairperson will send guidelines and information to all the scholarship committee members.

Bo Dino awards will only be made for a comprehensive clown instructional program which runs for a minimum of four (4) days and contains at least forty (40) instructional hours. This excludes conventions and single clown classes. Blab-I-Gail Memorial awards provide paid registration to any WCA member to attend the upcoming annual World Clown Convention. WORLD CLOWN ASSOCIATION BO DINO SCHOLARSHIP

The Bo Dino Scholarship encourages WCA members to further their clown education at select WCA recognized comprehensive forty (40) hour programs by covering their tuition fees up to USD 500. Applicant must be a WCA member for the last two (2) in good standing.

BO DINO SCHOLARSHIP HISTORY DEAN RICHARD WEISS

Bo Dino by Tango aka Leah Estrin

Bo Dino was a gentle man, born Dean Richard Weiss in 1937. Dean Richard Weiss lived a normal life, doing normal things, i.e. he married a lady by the name of Mary, had children, and worked – he was Vice President of a Chicago area bank- until 1974 when he was asked by a friend to help entertain at an orphanage. Dean dressed as a tramp, put on makeup and Bo Dino was born. Dean had a wonderful time entertaining the children. In an article that was published in CLOWNING AROUND, Volume 20, No.4, Richard Snowberg quoted Dean Richard Weiss as saying “Whether it rekindled my childhood dreams or merely punctured the bubble of pomposity I had been living in, I don’t know. But I do know that I left that room happier than I had been in years and I was determined to recapture, develop and repeat the experiment as soon and as often as possible.”

Richard then did as most of us have done and continue to do, he began to study. He studied clowning, magic, anything that he could then use his character of Bo Dino. He began performing at friends’ birthday parties, doing hospital and nursing home visits. He developed Bo Dino’s character and charm. Bo Dino grew and so did his career.

Numerous articles were written and published in the Chicago Tribune. As Bo Dino’s fame spread, Dean’s superiors at the bank became increasingly unsupportive. Dean was not projecting the image that they felt was proper for a bank officer. He was finally given the choice- his job as Vice President at the Bank, which meant giving up clowning or giving up his job as Vice President.

Dean made a choice after discussing it with his spouse, Mary and Bo Dino became a full time artiste. His reputation grew and before long he was working solely as Bo Dino. Mary made him a new costume, creating the long tie, the heart stitched to his rear and placing a daisy in his hat- the heart and daisy became his trademarks. Bo Dino was a caring clown, performed one man shows, and did company events, one of which was the Brunswick Recreation Center’s picnic for muscular dystrophy victims. After auditioning, Bo Dino became a Brunswick Goodwill Ambassador entertaining and encouraging people to bowl in 1977.

He co-authored a book titled Follow the Rainbow with Betty Bryant which sold for $5.95.

Follow the Rainbow was/is part an instructional book on clowning and autobiographical.

Snowberg stated in his article titled “Who was Dean Richard “Bo Dino” Weiss?” in CLOWNING AROUND, Volume 20, No.4.

In 1986, Bo Dino was scheduled to be an instructor at Clown Camp at the University of Wisconsin, La Crosse, but unfortunately for all budding clowns, Dean Weiss died unexpectedly in an auto accident in late 1985. Mary, his widow, donated Bo Dino’s props to Clown Camp where they were auctioned off and the monies used to start the World Clown Association Bo Dino Scholarship. This scholarship was the very first scholarship program for clowns established. Bo Dino would tell his audience, “If you’ve always wanted to do something different with your life, do it...there’s no such thing as the impossible dream. Anything can be made to happen if you try hard enough. So, if you’ve got a dream and you’ve pushed it to the back of your mind or put it on a shelf some-where, bring it out again. Dust it off, shine it up and carry it proudly wherever you go. Every wish can come true if you don’t give up.”

At the end of the day Dean Richard “Bo Dino” Weiss would often say, “My day is complete, I heard a child laugh today.”

BLAB-I-GAIL MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Blab-I-Gail Memorial Scholarship encourages World Clown Association members to attend the annual WCA convention by covering their registration fees to the annual convention. Applicant must be a current WCA member, and may Join WCA prior/while applying for the scholarship.

BLAB-I-GAIL SCHOLARSHIP HISTORY REMEMBERING DOROTHY MILLER

BY JANE SWIGGUM and RICH SNOWBERG

The Blab-I-Memorial Scholarship is given in honor of World Clown Association Life Member Dorothy Miller. In clown, Dorothy was known as Blab-I-Gail. She had a strong impact on many clowns both famous and those that were just putting on the greasepaint for the first time. Dorothy passed in the summer of 2013 at the age of 94 in Orland Park, Illinois, USA. For WCA members who never met Dorothy, here is some background information on this talented lady. Dorothy Miller was the 1995 World Clown Association's Clown of the Year. In 2001 she received the Midwest Clown Association's Lifetime Achievement Award. In 1988, she was inducted into the Chicago Senior Citizen's Hall of Fame. She taught clowning at Chicago's Daley College for over fifteen years. Dorothy was honored by having her character, Blab-I-Gail depicted on a Jim Howle oil painting for the Red Nose Philosophers collector set of prints. She held office of Education Director for the WCA, and was the person instrumental in getting the Bo Dino Scholarship program established for this organization. Likewise, she was a strong proponent in encouraging the WCA to develop the current Junior Joey program. On two occasions her clown character's photo as Blab-I-Gail was featured on the cover of CLOWNING AROUND magazine. She was a wonderful clown leader who wanted to focus the limelight on others.

Dorothy was a fund-raiser and strong advocate who worked tirelessly for the International Clown Hall of Fame during its formative years in Delavan, Wisconsin. She was a lifetime member and official of the Clown Guild of Metropolitan Chicago and for decades wrote monthly columns in their Walk-A-Round news letter. Also, she was a founding member of Niarome Clown Troupe which met in her home for over 20 years.

Dorothy attended the first University of Wisconsin-La Crosse Clown Camp program in 1981 and shortly thereafter became a staff member. Together with Betty Cash of Minnesota, became the longest serving members of the Clown Camp faculty. She was honored in 2008 for her contributions to this program.

Dorothy was like a second mother to hundreds of other clowns. This fine lady had clown friends throughout the world. The WCA is proud to continue to remember Dorothy Miller by formatting establishment of the BLAB-I-GAIL MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP.
